

Course structure 2010

12. April – 25. April 1 week	Phase 1 5 hours (workload) international	Learning to use Moodle. Introductions of participants. Who am I? Personal Mindmap.
26. April – 07. May 2 weeks	Phase 2 20 hours international	Concepts of identity. Gellner/Hobsbawm/Smith.
05. May – 23. May 2½ weeks	Phase 3 40 hours local	Modules:
		Finland: Religion, otherness and the shaping of collective identities
		Cologne: Language in the formation of identity
24. May – 30. May 1 week		Pentecost holiday
31. May – 06. June 1 week	Phase 4 5 hours international	Presentations of phase 3. Students post their reports and discuss them in international groups.
07. June – 27. June 3 weeks	Phase 5 40 hours local	Modules:
		Finland: Migration and national identity
		Cologne: Gender and Identities in European History
28. June – 04. July 1 week	Phase 6 5 hours international	Presentations of phase 5. Students post their reports and discuss them in international groups.
05. July – 25. July 3 weeks	Phase 7 15 hours international	One international topic (Finland & Cologne) National stereotypes and the construction of identity
26. July – 28. July	Phase 8 local / international	Evaluation / Examinations / Final presentations / Final reports