

E-Learning course: „Identities in European History“

Course structure 2011

Anne Kupila (Turku, Finland): anne.kupila@gmail.com

Christian Berrenberg (Cologne, Germany): c.berrenberg@uni-koeln.de

Date/duration	Phases local/international	Topic
04. April – 17. April 2 weeks	Phase 1 5 hours (workload) international	Learning to use Moodle. Introductions of participants. Who am I? Personal Mindmap.
18. April – 01. May 2 weeks	Phase 2 20 hours international	Theoretical framework Concepts of identity.
02. May – 22. May 3 weeks	Phase 3 40 hours international	Language in the formation of identity
23. May – 29. May 1 week	Phase 4 5 hours international	Presentations of phase 3. Students post their reports and discuss them in international groups.
30. May – 19. June 3 weeks	Phase 5 40 hours local	Modules:
		Finland: Migration and national identity
		Cologne: Gender and Identities in European History
20. June – 26. June 1 week	Phase 6 5 hours international	Presentations of phase 5. Students post their reports and discuss them in international groups.
27. June – 17. July 3 weeks	Phase 7 15 hours international	National stereotypes and the construction of identity
18. July – 20. July	Phase 8 local / international	Evaluation / Examinations / Final presentations / Final reports