

TRANSNATIONAL ASPECTS OF FINNISH LITERATURE (Viola Parente-Čapková, University of Turku)

The course will address the issue on transnational, transcultural, multilingual and transborder aspects of Finnish literature through various case studies, analyzing the category of the "national" and its place in the history of Finnish literature.

The objective of the course is to make students acquainted with various aspects of Finland's literature and culture in past and present, as well as to develop, in this particular context, a deeper analytical and methodological understanding of the category of "national" literature and its role in the processes of formation of the discipline of literary history.

Course dates:
April 12th - May 21st

Sessions:
Monday 10-12h,
Thursday 10-12h

One session per week will be "live" on Zoom, the other will be a recorded lecture or an assignment of reading, writing and commenting on the virtual platform

Registration:
Until 1 April 2021 via hello-jolnes@uni-koeln.de

Students with special needs are welcome to contact us before the course starts.